

I support RM-10765 and urge the FCC to approve the proposal. It offers for example an alternate method of distributing news and information in the event of serious disruption of "normal" channels, such as happened in the NYC area with the destruction of the WTC. Or such as could happen if someone were able to seriously damage any significant portion of the satellite communications infrastructure, either ground-based or space-based.

Robert W. Downs CWO4 USNR Ret'd. Amateur Radio Station WA5CAB